You can list any additional reasons why a conviction may be serious: for example, loss of driver's licence if you drive for a living.

Put down what grade you completed in school. (Or the number of years of high school you completed if you didn't go to school in Canada.)

You can explain why you think your case is complex, if you want.

Where it says, Attorney General of ______ you'll probably put "British Columbia." But if you're charged under certain federal laws, such as the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act or the Fisheries Act, put "Canada."

Don't sign until you are in front of the lawyer, a notary public, or a commissioner for taking affidavits. See step 2 on page 5.

The lawyer, notary public or commissioner fills out the date and place, and signs the form.

6.	That I believe my case is serious because I believe I may go to jail if convicted.

My case is also serious because:

- 7. That I do not know how to represent myself in a criminal trial. My education level is:
- That I believe my case is complex. My case is complex because: ______

9. I swear this Affidavit in support of an application to have a judge order that I be provided with counsel and for a stay of proceedings against me until the Attorney General of ______ provides the necessary funding for counsel.
